Fort Hays State Football - Outlook '90

What's all the fuss about?

Bob Cortese has raised a fuss in Hays and the surrounding area, yet the new Fort Hays State football coach won't even put a team on the field until Sept. 1.

Why would a first year coach have such an impact on a program in a matter of seven months?

These questions can be answered when you take a look at the coach and his accomplishments. Bob Cortese has won at every stop in his coaching career. Cortese owns a 164-48-4 record as a high school and collegiate head coach. He averaged more than eight wins a season at Mesa State College in ten years and did it his way. The Cortese brand of football will soon be unveiled at Fort Hays State, but there's a feeling around that there aren't going to be any surprises when the Tigers take the field on Sept. 1.

When Cortese was introduced to the public last January, he uttered the words "smash face football". This is the way the coach himself describes his style of football. "I think if you ask anyone what kind of football teams we've had, they will say we were physical," Cortese said. "No one has ever accused me of being a smart coach, but they say that we're disciplined and a hard hitting football team. I believe that football games are won or lost because of hitting - blocking and tackling. When we are finished playing whomever it might be, I want that school to know that they just played a Fort Hays State style of football which is a style which I've come to know through the high school and college ranks."

The 1990 Tiger football squad will likely be defensive oriented with the number of returning players on that side of the ball. FHSU has nine starters back on defense and just two returning on offense. Of course with a new coach, players and positions will be shuffled to fit a new system. That is quite apparent after Cortese experimented with the returning players during spring ball.

DEFENSE

Fort Hays State's strength will be its defense. In addition to having nine players that started a year ago, the Cortese style of defense should be entertaining. "We are going to be a jitter-bug, always moving around, and attacking type of defensive team," Cortese said. "We'll never sit back and we'll always be coming. Everyone knows that and we will get burned a few times, but we're going to attack, attack, and attack."

The new coach is pleased with the people he will have to attack with up front on defense. The tackle and nose guard positions will be filled by Frank Brown, Greg Yost, Kevin Wright, James Smallwood, and Kevin Weber. Brown was a standout tackle for the Tigers in

"No one has ever accused me of being a smart coach, but they say that we're disciplined and a hard hitting football team."

Cortese

1987 & 1988 with 56 and 40 tackles, respectively. Brown did not play last season. Yost was an all-CSIC pick last year and ranked fourth on the FHSU squad in tackles with 54. The Gorham native also was second on the squad in quarterback sacks with seven. Wright was a part-time starter last year after transferring from the University of Northern Iowa and contributed with 39 stops. Smallwood played both offense and defense last year as a freshman and tallied only 11 tackles. Weber started most of '89 at nose guard and completed play with 38 tackles.

One of the most pleasant surprises for a first year coach was the talent available at defensive end. Andy Adkins, John Pfau and Jeff Daily provide the Tigers with all the tools at this spot. "I think we will be very strong at the defensive end positions if everything comes together," Cortese said. "I think that those three players, by what they showed me in the spring, can do the type of things that we want to do very well." Adkins led last year's squad in sacks with 10 and totaled 38 tackles, but must rebound from an ankle injury suffered during spring ball. Pfau comes to FHSU by way of Dodge City Community College and Marshall University. Daily returns to the program, although he hasn't played a down in a game, after a year away attending Kansas State University.

Returning and preseason All-America Mike Allen has made the move to outside linebacker in the Cortese system. Allen was the top tackler last year with 82 stops and is versatile enough to adapt to his new position. The other outside linebacker spot should be filled by Ric Aschbrenner who saw time at defensive end last year. Aschbrenner collected 51 tackles a year ago. At middle linebacker, two returning starters, Doug Holthaus and Brian Stindt, will see action. Holthaus had 49 tackles in '89 while Stindt contributed 33.

An area of concern is the defensive secondary. Three players - Kurt Dinkel, Rick Masters and Rob Greundell have experience, but after that it gets a little thin. Dinkel is a three-year starter and tied for second on last year's squad in tackles with 59. Masters has struggled with injuries while at FHSU, but if healthy can be a factor. Greundell started for the Tigers as a freshman in '88 and should be solid after a 46-tackle performance as a sophomore.

OFFENSE

The Tigers had big holes to fill, but holes loom ever larger with the loss of returning All-America Joe Karas due to a summer injury. "Losing Joe Karas was devastating to us," Cortese said. "Joe was not only our best lineman, but among the top offensive players that we

Dr. Edward H. Hammond - President

Dr. Edward H. Hammond, 46, is the eighth President of Fort Hays State University. A man of boundless enthusiasm and energy, whose style is upbeat and progressive, President Hammond was born in McAllen, Texas, but reared in the Kansas City, Kansas, area.

Prior to his current post, President Hammond gained education experiences and shared his expertise at the University of Louisville, Seton Hall University, Southern Illinois University, Purdue University, and the University of Missouri-Columbia. The President holds a bachelor's and master's degree from Emporia State University and the Ph.D. from the University of Missouri-Columbia.

President Hammond has been extremely active since assuming the leadership of the University in the summer of 1987. He laid the groundwork for the Western Kansas Educational Compact, a cooperative educational initiative between FHSU and the community colleges in Western Kansas; is watching his dream to totally computerize the campus quickly become reality; created a Western Kansas Coalition, an organization comprised of business and community leaders from 57

Western Kansas counties; helped to establish scholarship programs for potential minority school teachers at Garden City and Liberal; has played a major role in the furthering economic development in Hays and Western Kansas; and recently introduced a voice mail system that will vault the foreign language efforts of FHSU into the an elite class.

President Hammond has published widely and is in demand nationally as an education consultant because of his expertise in risk management, staff and institutional liability, sexual harassment, and alcohol education issues.

The Hammond family includes wife Viv (Hammeke), formerly of Ellinwood, daughters Kelly and Julie and son Lance.

Tom Spicer - Director of Athletics

When Tom Spicer was named to the director of athletics post at Fort Hays State University on July 27, 1989, he said it was something he had dreamed about for quite some time. Spicer is starting his second year as director of athletics and has emphasized a return to athletic and academic excellence.

A native of Beaver, OK, Spicer attended secondary schools in Hays. He is a graduate of Hays High School and earned a bachelor of science degree from Fort Hays State in 1972. He played varsity football for the Tigers in his collegiate days. Spicer also received his master of science degree from FHSU in 1977. He is completing a specialist in education degree with work at both Southeastern Oklahoma State University and The Wichita State University.

Spicer made the move from director of athletics and dean of student affairs at Buter County Community College in El Dorado back to FHSU. "I look at this as a good, professional move," Spicer said at the announcement of his appointment at FHSU. "I will have an excellent opportunity to share my knowledge and experiences and will gain some new experiences at a quality, four-year institution. Everyone in the midwest knows that Fort Hays State University is a great school."

The 39-year-old Spicer also has experience as director of athletics, physical education instructor, head football and track coach for the Durant, OK, School District. Previous to his work in Oklahoma, he taught and coached at Salina South High School, at Bishop Miege High School in Shawnee Mission and at Schlagle High School in Kansas City, KS.

Spicer is married to the former Kathy McGovern of Garden City. She received a bachelor of arts degree in sociology from Fort Hays State in 1972. The Spicers have four children: Mathew (15), Amber (12), Kristen (10) and Allison (8).

Bob Cortese Head Coach

A proven winner. That is how Bob Cortese is perceived in collegiate coaching circles. Cortese brings with him a background of success at the collegiate level.

Cortese was named the 18th head football coach in Fort Hays State history, December 29, 1989, after 10 years as head coach at Mesa State College in Grand Junction, Colorado. The Mavericks landed six NAIA playoff berths while establishing an 84-22-3 record with Cortese as its head coach. Mesa State had records of 2-8 and 1-8, respectively, the two seasons prior to Cortese's appointment as head coach. He only had one losing season, 3-6 in his first year, with the Mavericks and never lost more than three games in any season after his first year.

The 47-year-old Rochester, N.Y. native ranks second among the NAIA's winningest active coaches prior to the start of this season with a percentage of .784. He has taken a team to the NAIA playoffs six of the last eight seasons.

"Bob Cortese brings proven leadership and quality to the Fort Hays State football program, but also will provide an exciting brand of football and expectations of winning with integrity and academics as a base," FHSU director of athletics Tom Spicer said.

Along with success comes honors, Cortese was named the NAIA District 7 Coach of the Year six times. He also was a runner-up for NAIA National Coach of the Year honors in 1982 & 1983.

As a collegiate athlete, Cortese excelled on the football field at Northeastern Junior College in Sterling, CO, where he earned J.C. Grid-Wire and UPI All-America honors in 1962. He went on to spend two successful seasons with the University of Colorado. He earned a bachelor of science degree from Colorado in 1967 with a major in physical education. He completed work on a master's degree in curriculum and instruction with an emphasis in vocational education at the University of Northern Colorado in 1973.

After his playing days at the University of Colorado, Cortese spent two seasons as a graduate assistant in the program and later returned to the program under both Bill Mallory and Chuck Fairbanks as a full time assistant.

Cortese was a prep coach in Colorado at Lakewood High School (1979-80), Arvada Senior High School (1974-77), Highland High School (1971-74), and St. Joseph High School (1969-71). His coaching mark at all levels is an impressive 174-49-4 in 21 seasons.

Cortese is married. His wife's name is Toni. Bob has two sons, Jim and Jeff, and Toni has two daughters, Michelle and Andrea.

Jay Hood
Defensive Coordinator

Jay Hood begins his first season at Fort Hays State with responsibilities as defensive coordinator, secondary coach and recruiting coordinator. Hood brings vitality and enthusiasm to the Tiger defense.

Hood held similar position at Mesa State College as an assistant to Bob Cortese in a successful program since 1988. He was instrumental in the defensive performance of Maverick squads that put together 9-2 and 9-1 seasons, respectively.

Hood got his coaching start as a graduate assistant at Bowling Green State University from 1986-88. His duties with the Falcons included special teams, defensive secondary, film breakdown, special teams scouting report, production of off-season training films, on-campus recruiting and physical conditioning program.

A 1986 graduate of Ohio Wesleyan University with a bachelor of arts degree, Hood was a four-year starter at quarterback as a collegiate athlete. He earned all-conference honors all four seasons and was a team captain three years. Hood completed a master of education with an emphasis in athletic administration from Bowling Green in 1987.

A native of Ada, Ohio, Hood, 27 (born September 5, 1963), married the former Lisa Burnham in June of this year.

Wayne Petterson
Linebackers

Wayne Petterson begins his ninth year as a member of the Fort Hays State athletic staff, but his initial year under first-year head coach Bob Cortese. Petterson is also the head wrestling coach for the Tigers.

With responsibilities on the defensive side with the linebackers, Petterson coaches football with the same intensity as he does his wrestlers. He has produced a good group of NAIA All-America wrestlers while heading the program.

Petterson is a 1982 graduate of Fort Hays State with a bachelor of science degree in physical education. He completed work on his master's degree, also in physical education at FHSU, in 1984.

The Beloit native, excelled as a wrestler with three NAIA All-America performances to his credit. He attended Graceland College in Lamoni, IA, as a freshman in college and earned All-America honors before transferring to Fort Hays State. Petterson was honored with the prestigious Busch Gross Award in 1982 which recognizes the top senior from the previous year at FHSU. He has wrestled and coached on the international level with trips that include the Orient.

Petterson, is married to the former Tammy Dewey.

Hal Rogers
Offensive Backfield

Hal Rogers enters the Fort Hays State program with a wealth of football experience as a head and assistant coach at the collegiate level. Rogers has primary duties as offensive backfield coach and academic coordinator.

Rogers was a part-time assistant at the University of Colorado in 1988. That season marked the debut of the I-bone in college football with the Buffaloes implementation of that offensive system.

The Colorado native was the head coach at Western State in Gunnison, CO, from 1985-87. Rogers started as a graduate assistant at WSC in 1981.

As a collegiate athlete, Rogers was named an outstanding freshman as a linebacker in 1972 while at Colorado School of Mines. Rogers transferred to the University of Utah for 1973-74 where he was a squad member, but later returned to his home state to play for Western State. While a Mountaineer, Rogers was a captain, all-RMAC pick, and a key member in leading the school to a third place national finish in 1976.

Rogers earned a bachelor's degree (1977) and a master's in physical education (1982) from Western State.

Rogers, 36 (born March 5, 1954), and his wife, Jane, have two children. Their son, Nathan, is 10, and daughter, Angela, is six.

FORT HAYS STATE UNIVERSITY

Founded in 1902 on the Plains of Western Kansas, Fort Hays State University is the second youngest of the six state universities of higher education.

From an exciting beginning, when 34 students were greeted by two faculty members and a 19-course curriculum, our University has grown to a student body of 5,200, a faculty of nearly 300, a support staff of 250 and a curriculum comprised of 1,500 courses.

Fort Hays State University is one of seven state-assisted universities governed by a Board of Regents appointed by the Governor of the State of Kansas.

The main campus of FHSU sits on 200 of the 4,160 acres owned by the state of Kansas and deeded to the University. Winding Big Creek, with its shady, grassy banks, traverses the campus and provides not only a tranquil, conducive learning atmosphere, but also a natural laboratory for students in the biological sciences. Our campus has often been called the prettiest in Kansas.

Fort Hays State University is located in Hays, the largest city in northwest Kansas. A progressive city of 17,500 people, Hays is an old cow town on the Union Pacific railroad. The old and the new blend beautifully to form a city that is small enough you can feel comfortable in, yet is large enough to provide culture and shopping facilities second to none.

The University is comprised of four colleges: Arts and Sciences, Business, Education, and Health and Life Sciences, and a Graduate School.

FHSU is academically superior to many comparable universities and is richly endowed by heritage and tradition. A recent survey of our students showed that while there are a multitude of reasons why students come to our University, their overwhelming response was "because of the University's reputation for academic excellence."

Fort Hays State University supports one of the most extensive intercollegiate sports programs of any comparable size college or university in America. More than 350 athletes annually compete in seven men's and five women's sports. Fort Hays State University recently joined the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference, but will not compete for the football championship in the conference in 1990. The RMAC is comprised of schools from the states of Kansas, Colorado, Nebraska and New Mexico.

LEWIS FIELD STADIUM

Lewis Field Stadium, the 7,000-seat home of the Tigers was constructed in 1936 on what was formerly the Golden Belt Fairgrounds, and was named in honor of William Alexander Lewis, president of Fort Hays State University from 1913 to 1933.

The native limestone structure is located beside a spacious tree-lined drive and is just a short walk from the campus residence halls and the downtown business district.

The stadium turf is Bermuda grass, the same strong-rooted plant used in many golf course greens. Dressing rooms, concession areas, athletic training facilities, and equipment storage rooms are located under the grandstands. New restroom facilities were completed before the 1986 season replacing older outdated ones. The newest remodeling was recently finished on the home lockerroom. An overhaul of the former lockerroom was completed just before fall practices with a synthetic floor, a false ceiling and new paint providing a entirely different atmosphere. A state-of-the-art stereo system was also installed.

Admittance to the stadium is allowed through two main gates, one on the east side and one on the west side. Four ticket windows are in service for each game.

Atop both grandstands are press box facilities which provide seating for writers, statisticians, radio stations, scouts, and film/video crews. The home coaches box and all film/video crews are located on the west side.

The east side is made available for all press, radio, Fort Hays State sports information, visiting information personnel, public address, scoreboard operations and a private box for the president of the university and guests. An eight-lane, cinder track surrounds the playing field and adjacent to the stadium are regulation size practice facilities.

UNIVERSITY ANTHEM

On the plains of Western Kansas
Stands a school we all love well
'Twas built by the toil of our fathers;
To its glory our voices swell

Chorus:

Hail to old Fort Hays State!
Let your voices ring
Praise for the Black and Gold
We will ever sing
Long may our valor last
Through the future days
Hon'ring and praising
Dear Fort Hays.

In the years that lie before us
We foresee our land's many needs
Through the efforts of new generations,
We'll go on to more noble needs.

FHSU FIGHT SONG

Go you, Hays Tigers,
Fight right through that line.
With your colors flying
We will cheer you all the time.
Rah, Rah, Rah.

Go you, Hays Tigers
Fight for victory
Fight for the fame of our fair name,
Go Hays Tigers
Win this game.

PROUD SUPPORTERS OF TIGER ATHLETICS

A Review of 1989 Tiger Football

Fort Hays State 29, Western State 16

HAYS (Sept.2) The Mountaineers traveled to Hays with upset on their minds and played that way through the first quarter. Western State scored all of its 16 points and amassed 108 of its 250 total yards in the first period. The Tiger defense came to life in the second half limiting the Mountaineers to only 40 yards in total offense. Meanwhile, the combination of running back Jeff Sinegal and receiver Tyrone Tracy proved to be much to handle for WSC. Sinegal kept the Tigers in good field position all day with 180 yards rushing including a 58 yard touchdown. Tracy pulled in two scoring passes, both in the final quarter, and tallied 76 yards for the game.

ALVA, OK (Sept. 9) A defensive struggle was capped by a fourth quarter touchdown when Victor Williams hit Steve Bartley for a 12 yard scoring strike to put Northwestern Oklahoma State up 12-0. Monte Smith added a pair of field goals for the Rangers including a 50 yarder as the horn sounded to end the second quarter. Fort Hays State managed only 168 yards in total offense with much of that coming off of Jeff Sinegal's rushing total of 99 yards. FHSU quarterbacks were intercepted three times while completing only 5 of 19 passes. The Tigers inability to put anything together is amplified in the punting statistics. FHSU punted 12 times in the contest.

Cameron 34, Fort Hays State 20

LAWTON, OK (Sept. 16) The final score was definitely not indicative of the game on a gorgeous night in southern Oklahoma. Cameron scored the first 27 points of the contest and the Tigers rallied to score 20 of the last 27 to make the final total respectable. It was a physical contest which cost each team some key players for the weeks to come. The Aggies used a variety of offensive weapons to run up nearly 400 yards in total offense. FHSU could not put all of its effort into production enough to sustain a serious threat. The highlight for the Tigers was an electrifying 87 yard kickoff return by Tyrone Tracy.

Northern Iowa 43, Fort Hays State 15

CEDAR FALLS, IA (Sept. 23) The Tigers stepped up a level when they traveled to the UNI-Dome to take on the NCAA Division I-AA Panthers on their home turf. Northern Iowa struck quickly with the passing game to take a 21-0 lead after one quarter and cruised to an easy win. Offensively, Fort Hays State established the running game with 188 total rushing yards, but the Tigers fumbled the ball away twice and were intercepted three times to thwart most of the forward progress. Quarterback Milt McGriggs led the FHSU charge with 66 yards rushing on 20 carries and 94 yards passing - 12 of 26 with two interceptions.

HAYS (Oct. 7) A near capacity crowd at Homecoming '89 was disappointed by the final outcome and couldn't have been pleased with the style of game that they had seen. The Redmen entered the contest without a win yet played just well enough to go home with their first victory. The Tigers had a tough time sustaining any offensive drives and once again were bitten with the turnover bug. Northeastern State capitalized on two of FHSU's mistakes to score 10 points. The Tigers threw two interceptions and fumbled the ball away an additional three times. Tyrone Tracy proved to be the only bright spot for the Black & Gold with six catches for 88 yards and a touchdown.

MACOMB, IL (Oct. 14) Fort Hays State's encounter with its second NCAA Division I-AA opponent of the season was much like its first. The Leathernecks capitalized on a Ken Dean fumble on the Tigers' first possession of the game inside the WIU five yard line to gain momentum for the remainder of the game. That opening drive proved to be FHSU's best scoring opportunity of the contest. Running back Bernard Holloway had a career day with three rushing touchdowns, a scoring reception, and 164 all-purpose yards in the rout of the Tigers. FHSU was careless with the football again with five turnovers to its credit.

New Mexico Highlands 36, Fort Hays State 35

LAS VEGAS, NM (Oct. 21) If a single game can reflect an entire season, then the Tigers contest at New Mexico Highlands would probably come closest to doing so in 1990. Fort Hays State jumped out to a 28-0 which has to be attributed to Milt McGriggs' excellent effort in running the option. McGriggs scored on runs of 72 and 25 and piled 128 net yards rushing all in the first half. The Tiger signal caller also was 6 of 11 passing for 146 yards in the first 30 minutes. The Cowboys scored two touchdowns in the last four minutes of the first half to cut the FHSU lead to 28-14. Flanker Tyrone Tracy put the Tigers up 35-14 early in the third period, but New Mexico Highlands owned the final quarter with 22 points including a one yard run by Tim Ellison with 0:22 for the win.

HAYS (Oct. 28) Fort Hays State responded to the embarrassing loss at New Mexico Highlands with a romp over Wayne State in the Tigers first CSIC contest of the season. FHSU scored 21 unanswered points, but this time didn't let its opponent back into the game. Milt McGriggs was superb once again with 282 yards in individual total offense (106 rushing & 176 passing). The Chicago quarterback ran for two scores and threw threetouchdown passes to pave the way to an easy Tiger win. The Wildcats brought a young and talented squad to Hays, but a stingy defense and a diversified offensive attack proved to be the difference for the home team.

Fort Hays State 24, Kearney State 20

HAYS (Nov. 4) Fort Hays State showed a lot of character against arch-rival Kearney State in coming back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to score three straight touchdowns in eight minutes late in the third and early in the fourth quarter to take a 24-14 lead. The Tigers held off a late Loper rally to preserve the 24-20 victory. Milt McGriggs, although not as brilliant as in his last two outings, was the difference with poise and confidence during the stretch drive. McGriggs scored on a three yard run midway through the third period and then tossed a pair of touchdowns to Tyrone Tracy (20 yards) and Kenny Crandall (14 yards). Crandall's score proved to be the game-winner when KSC scored late after the Tigers fumbled into the end zone.

Emporia State 34, Fort Hays State 21

HAYS (Nov. 11) The Tigers would've given anything to come away with a win against Emporia State to win the final CSIC championship and keep the Hornets out of the NAIA playoffs. FHSU led briefly at 21-20 in the fourth quarter, but Emporia State scored two touchdowns in a matter of 0:58 to lock up the win. ESU runningback Alvester Bobby rambled for 217 yards rushing and three touchdowns to provide the spark for the visitors. The Tigers' Milt McGriggs left the game in the first half with an injury, that had a big impact on FHSU's chances to win the contest.

Fort Hays State Football - Outlook '90

"Joe was not only our best lineman, but among the top offensive players that we had coming back. You just don't lose a preseason All-America player and not have it effect your team adversely."

The offensive line now must rely on a collection of small returnees, youth, and hopefully a pair of large transfers. Alan Banks, Dwight Goodman, and Matt Raasch will likely hold down the guard positions. That trio is smaller (in height) than Cortese would like to put on the field, but the new coach does like their work ethic. At center, the Tigers will rely on newcomer Justin Jaekely who was impressive last spring and sophomore Chip Brock will also see playing time. Anchoring the line will be a pair of big bodies in Ron Staton and Dave Lannon. Staton was a member of the Tiger squad in the spring of '89, but hasn't seen game action. Lannon is a transfer from Golden West Junior College by way of Iowa State.

The changes and shifting of players are most evident in the skill position areas. Junior co-captain Chris Capettini has made the move to tight end where he and Tony Veglia will split time and see duty as double tight ends in short yardage situations. John Ruder has switched from a tight end spot to the slotback in the I-bone. Receivers that will compete for action are Mike Zegunis, Kenny Crandall, Kevin Pierre and Dan Dierks all of whom Cortese sees as possession-type receivers. The Tigers recruited speed in newcomers Gar Ball and Greg Smith. Ball played juco ball at Butler County Community College while Smith comes to FHSU following a stellar prep career at Fort Carson High School in Fountain, CO.

Ball is also in a large group of players being looked at to fill the two running back positions in the I-bone. Returning players Gary Hanus and Brad Miller will likely see time with Hanus entering fall practices as the top prospect at fullback. Two freshman, Desmond Rivera and Steve Allison, have a good shot at securing the tailback spot. The duo was hailed as good as they come at running back in the state of Colorado as prep players. Rivera played at Sierra High School in Colorado Springs and Allison was a standout at Chatfield High School in Littleton.

Milt McGriggs emerged as a very talented quarterback in Fort Hays State's last few games of 1989 and it figured that position would be one of the hardest to fill for a new coaching staff. But Cortese wasn't disappointed with what he saw in spring practice. "I'm really not as concerned about the quarterback position as I was before spring ball," Cortese said. "Bryan Maring proved this spring that he was better than most of us thought he was. He has great intelligence, throws the ball well, and I think he can run our offense. He will not be a dash kind of guy and break long runs for touchdowns when we're running the option, but he'll get us the yardage we need." Maring, a senior from Salina, will compete with junior college transfer Damon Fisher and talented freshman Dan Nuschy out of Trinidad, CO. That trio will comprise most of the quarterback contingent for the Tigers.

KICKING

The kicking game is a big concern for Cortese. It's an area which he believes "you can win a lot of football games." The Tigers primary punter, John Ruder, and placekicker, Roy Miller, return but the new coach anticipates some changes due to competition. Freshman Flynn Harvey has experience in both areas and transfer Scott Springston may vie for placekicking duties.

The 1990 schedule of games presents some interesting twists to a first year head coach. "It's a funny schedule. I've never had four home games in a row," Cortese said. "That's nice to have early in the season, but the opposite of that is that you have to go on the road at the end of the season. It's not an easy schedule, but on the other hand it is not so powerful that you don't have a chance to win games."

All the fuss about Cortese comes down to one simple concept of athletics.

Winning.

There's not much question that the Tigers' new man will win while at Fort Hays State. But he may just do it in his first season.
